

| | | | |
|---------------------------|--|-----------|---|
| -Chapter 1, Lesson 2----- | | | |
| NATURAL RESOURCE | anything found in nature that is useful to people | CONSERVE | to limit the use of something in order to protect it from waste or overuse |
| RENEWABLE RESOURCE | a resource that can be restored or renewed | POLLUTION | chemicals and other harmful substances that can damage the water, air, or land |
| NONRENEWABLE RESOURCE | a natural resource that is available in limited supply that cannot be replaced or renewed | | |
| RESERVOIR | a natural or artificial lake used to reserve or store water | | |
| DROUGHT | a period of time with little rain | | |